The pandemic challenged and affected all fundamental rights in Europe and around the globe. European values such as democracy, human rights and rule of law were affected to such an extent that the European Union and the Council of Europe organised the common initiative - Wash your hands and defend human rights: EU and Council of Europe actions in the time of COVID-19. Two leaders from CEC member churches, Bishop Bosse-Huber from Germany and Metropolitan Emmanuel from	Webinar 2 09.55 - 11:30 Prayer (Orthodox Tradition) Challenges for the CEC churches in the time of COVID-19 in the area of Freedom of Religion or Belief and other fundamental rights – case studies (Session I) In democratic countries in Europe, democracy, human rights and rule of law are business as usual. In times of normality, the right to freedom of religion or belief is taken for granted by the majority of people in Europe. During the pandemic, European governments reacted in various ways by limiting the right to freedom of religion or belief. Some traditions like the Orthodox one, the practice of the 'shared spoon' (a centuries-old practice for the receiving of communion) raised questions on whether communion is source of health or source of disease. In some Protestant traditions, adapting to the new ways of worship has also proven to be a difficult exercise. The virus does not have a gender, a religion or belief, an ethnicity, colour or nationality. It does not have a passport and is free travel anywhere and attack every one of us. How has the current COVID–19 pandemic affected other religious groups like Jews and Muslims and their places of worship? How has COVID affected minorities, migrant refugees and Roma people? Moderator: Dr Elizabeta Kitanovic, CEC & Rev. This peer-to-peer learning methodology is interactive, adaptable, and constantly enriched by emerging promising practices by faith actors. The #Faith4Rights toolkit contains 18 modules and numerous cases for debate and audio-visual material to stimulate creative approaches. This webinar will start with an overview of the whole toolkit before focusing on its COVID-19 related exercises in modules 5, 6 and 16. https://www.ohchr.org/Documents/Press/faith4rights-toolkit.pdf.
